ADD FOLLOWING language: PATTERNS MAY BE Published by show management no more than one day prior to the first day of a show and patterns may only be published on the hosting APA's official website. Patterns may not be posted on any other social media.

Originator's Justification for change and impact if not passed: (Proposal will be returned if not completed)
At a very large show this year, patterns were posted on show office personnel's ^{personal} facebook page four days in advance of the show. This was done with the permission of an APA officer. However, it created an unlevel playing field as not all exhibitors knew the patterns were available and many do not use facebook or in this case would even know where to look. In at least two divisions this disadvantage arguably impacted the top ten placings.
