RECIPROCITY

Rule 114. Reciprocity disciplinary action may be given after notice to the sanctioned member or non-member according to PHBA Rules and By-Laws. The responsibility of monitoring the suspensions and probation of the reciprocating associations shall be under the General Manager. The General Manager on a monthly basis shall review the reciprocating associations disciplinary lists, verify PHBA membership and directly report any findings of PHBA members to the Executive Board for appropriate and timely action.

Originator's justification for change and impact if not passed:

The General Manger has access to the PHBA Membership list and can cross reference the associations suspension and probation notices rather than the President-Elect, who most likely have no idea that the PHBA member is on other association's suspension/probation list.
