Recommendation for change-

Amateur Constitution and by laws

Article 6 section 7 A

- A. Amateur Executive Board members missing two (2) or more, consecutive or intermittent meetings, face to face and/or tele conference, without prior notification, shall be removed from the Board for the balance of that term year, except where excused for just cause.

Justification for change-

This rule needed updating, clarification, and a better understanding for members to understand what is expected of them and the consequences for their choices. Also makes it clearer to implement properly with justification if ever needed.
